IV. APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF PREVIOUS MEETING

The Chairman said that the first item on the Agenda is the reading and approval of the Minutes of the Annual Stockholders' Meeting held on 29 May 2017. The Chairman said that the Minutes of the 2017 Annual Stockholders' Meeting were posted on the Company's website five (5) business days after the meeting and are available on the website.

A stockholder moved that the reading of the Minutes of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on 29 May 2017 be dispensed with and that said Minutes be approved. The motion was seconded.

The Chairman requested the Corporate Secretary to inform the body of the votes of the shareholders on the approval of the Minutes of the Annual Stockholders Meeting held on 29 May 2017. The Corporate Secretary reported that shareholders holding 6,819,530,339 shares representing 80.59% of the outstanding capital stock of the Company, voted YES to the approval of the Minutes of the 29 May 2017 Annual General Stockholders' Meeting. There were no negative votes. Abstentions totaled 62,968,690 shares representing only 0.81% of the outstanding capital stock.

The Chairman then declared that the Minutes of the 29 May 2017 Annual General Stockholders' Meeting were approved.

V. ANNUAL REPORT AND AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR 2017

The President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Gerard H. Brimo (the "President") presented highlights of the Annual Report, followed by the Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Emmanuel L. Samson (the "CFO"), who presented the financial highlights, as well as a brief overview of the 2018 first quarter results.

The President's Report

The President welcomed the shareholders to the Company's Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

The President reported that during the year-end review, the Company experienced a drop in sales volume to 17.7 Million Wet Metric Tons (WMT) of ore, compared to 19.3 Million WMT in the prior year. The Company was again affected by a long rainy season in the south of the country where three (3) of its mines are located, resulting to the delayed start of mining and shipping season. Because of low prices of some of the Company's ore products, particularly limonite ore, the Company lowered its exports of said type of ore. Despite lower sales volume for 2017, revenues increased by over eleven percent (11%), from P14.1 Billion in 2016 to P15.7 Billion in 2017. The improvement was said to have resulted primarily from two things: (1) a weaker peso-dollar exchange rate (which averaged P50.42/$1, as against P48/$1 in 2016); and (2) overall better prices for ore exports which improved by fifteen percent (15%), and even better realized prices for limonite sales of the two processing plant associates, otherwise known as “domestic sales”, which improved by twenty three percent (23%).

The President explained that with respect to domestic sales, pricing is determined based on the prevailing prices in the London Metal Exchange (LME) which improved in the latter half of 2017, along with a pronounced and continuing decrease in inventory levels of metal in LME warehouses, which translated to a strong demand for the metal and a supply deficit.

In contrast, with respect to the pricing of the Company’s ore exports, the reverse occurred in 2017. Prices weakened because of Indonesia’s relaxation of its ore export ban. An unusual situation then arose where prices of ore exports are weaker, while prices of domestic sales of ore to the two processing plant associates were much higher, when there was usually a correlation between the two. The President said that the strength in the pricing of the Company’s domestic sales and the equity income that will be derived from investment in the said processing plants will more than compensate for the weak export prices.

The Company’s attributable income for 2017 was P2.77 Billion, twenty nine percent (29%) higher than the previous year. Contributing to the income was the substantial turnaround in the performance of the two processing plant associates where the Company has a ten percent (10%) equity. Said turnaround reportedly resulted to equity income of almost P200 Million in 2017 as against a loss of P414 Million in 2016. The turnaround was said to be caused by the improvement in LME nickel prices as previously noted, and a surge in the price of cobalt, a by-product of the processing plants’ operations. Cobalt, explained the President, is a strategic material for batteries for the electric vehicle market, as is nickel. Most commodity analysts are of the opinion that the growing electric vehicle market will be a game changer for nickel and cobalt in the years to come, reported the President. The President assured the shareholders of the Company that they can most certainly expect continuing good results from the processing plant associates this year.

Because of better bottom line results in 2017, the Company declared and paid cash dividends amounting to P912 Million, 50% higher than dividends declared in 2016. Said cash dividend payment for 2017 was the 11th time that the Company has paid cash dividends, including three special cash dividends when income was exceedingly high, since it became a publicly listed company towards the end of 2010.

As previously reported, mine audits by the Department of Energy and Natural Resources (DENR) Secretary resulted in a closure order of a number of mines. Out of the company’s four (4) mines, three (3) passed the audit, including Company’s two (2) largest operations, Taganito and Rio Tuba. The Taganaan mining under Hinatuan mining, unfortunately, did not pass said audit. The Company already filed an appeal with the Office of the President. Said appeal, which remains pending, stayed the closure order, hence, Taganaan mine still operates normally. According to the President, the Mineral Industry Coordinating Council, early this year, started a review of all mines served with closure orders including the Company’s Taganaan operation. When the results will come out is still unknown, but the President assured the shareholders that the Company is confident that the situation will be resolved favorably.

The President also announced that an award was received by the Company’s oldest mining operation, Rio Tuba, for best practices in sustainable development in the mineral mining category, given during the first ever ASEAN mineral awards in Myanmar. As a background, The President explained that a few years ago, the ASEAN Mining Ministers launched the ASEAN Mineral Awards to recognize best practices in the region. Each member country was asked to nominate their best metallic mine plant and the DENR nominated the Company’s Rio Tuba operations. Subsequently, after being told that the Company was one of three (3) finalists, it was asked to make a final presentation in Myanmar. A few days after the presentation, the Company was declared the winner, besting Siam Cement of Thailand, and PT Halmahera Minerals of Indonesia, majority owned by Newcrest of Australia. It is one thing to be recognized as the best mine of the country, but quite another to be recognized as the best mine in ASEAN, said the President. Said award indeed demonstrates that the Company has world class mines. The President ended his report by saying that the Company is committed to its new mission statement, as can be seen in the annual report, which is to achieve the highest standards for responsible and sustainable development of our country’s natural resources.

Financial and Operating Results

The CFO then presented the financial and operating results for 2017, as well as a brief overview of first quarter results for 2018.

Despite the relaxation of Indonesia’s ore export ban, 2017 was reportedly a better year for the Company in terms of prices. Realized ore prices for 2017 was $24.42/WMT, higher than realized ore prices of the previous years. Price of HPAL deliveries, which are linked to LME prices, were also higher in 2017 compared to 2015 and 2016.

The CFO reported that sales volume decreased in 2017 from 19.254 Million tons in 2016 to 17.703 Million tons in 2017, a ten percent (10%) drop due to the shift of focus to shipment of higher value saprolite ore and lowered sales of lower value limonite ore. The weather also affected nickel sales volume as there was a longer wet season in 2017, said the CFO.

Despite lower volumes, revenues were still higher in 2017 amounting to P14.434 Billion, compared to P13.324 Billion in 2016. Taganito operation was the main driver both in revenue and volume, said the CFO.

On operating margins, revenue was $16.17/WMT sold while cash cost was at $9.21/WMT, giving the Company an operating margin of $6.96/WMT, higher than the operating margins of 2016 and 2015, with $6.16 and $6.60, respectively.

According to the CFO, Revenues for 2017 amounted to P15.739 Billion, higher than the P15.432B revenue in 2015 and P14.148 Billion in 2016. EBITDA was at P7 Billion in 2017, higher than previous years, which translated to a forty-five percent (45%) EBITDA margin in 2017. Net income for 2017 was forty percent (40%) higher, which amounted to P2.771 Billion, compared to P1.9 Billion in 2016 and P2 Billion in 2015, which translated to a net income margin of eighteen percent (18%) in 2017.

Outlook for 2018

The CFO explained that export ore prices represents about fifty-five percent (55%) of total shipments while LME prices applies to about the remaining forty-five percent (45%) of total shipments. Since the Philippines started exporting ore to china sometime in 2005, there has always been a strong correlation between ore export prices and LME prices, until September of last year when ore export prices started to decrease while LME prices continued to trend up, as affected by Indonesia's relaxation of the ore export ban. According to the CFO, despite low export prices, there are still factors that will drive earnings for 2018 such as:

1. Higher LME prices. The CFO said that in the first quarter alone, the price of the deliveries to the two (2) processing plants were sixty-five percent (65%) higher than last year's first quarter. He also said that the Company expects an increase in the share of earnings from its equity in the processing plants, assuming current LME nickel and cobalt prices.
2. Increase in shipment volume from 17.7 Million /WMT to over 20 Million /WMT.
3. Foreign Exchange gains which amounted to P344 Million in the first quarter alone.

First quarter nickel ore sales volume for 2018 was slightly higher than 1st quarter of the previous year, reported the CFO. Realized price for ore exports decreased from $31.67/WMT to $17.07/WMT. On the other hand, realized prices for HPAL deliveries increased from $5.20/WMT in the first quarter of 2016 to $8.60/WMT in the first quarter of 2018.

Due to lower prices, revenues for the first quarter of 2018 were slightly lower than same time last year by thirteen percent (13%). This, however, was offset by the Company's share of earnings from the two (2) processing plants. In 2017, the Company's share of earnings from the processing plants for the full year was P200 Million. Said amount was exceeded in the first quarter of 2018 alone. Said equity earnings and foreign exchange gains were more than enough to offset lower revenues thereby showing a fifty-three percent (53%) increase in the net income for the first quarter to P576 Million, from P378 Million during the same period of the previous year.
